Wabash Marketplace, Inc. Announces February First Friday Wabash Details

Wabash, Ind. –Organized by Wabash Marketplace, Inc., the seventh year of First Fridays in downtown Wabash will soon kick off with increased support thanks to the addition of several new event sponsors. Brought to you by Platinum Sponsor Autumn Ridge Rehabilitation Centre, First Friday encourages the community to celebrate in downtown Wabash with this month's theme "Searching for Love" from 5-8 p.m. Friday, February 2nd.

You will find many deals, food options, and kids' activities! First Friday participants should travel to each of the featured businesses to find the heart hidden within the store with a code word on it. These maps can be picked up at The Welcome Center and Modoc's Market! Each location will have a code word that will need to be written on your map. Once the map is full, you can drop it off at any of the featured locations. You will then be entered to win the First Friday Basket loaded with so many local goodies! Sponsored by Beacon Credit Union and gas supplied by J.M. Reynolds Oil Co., Inc., Trolley No. 85 will be making the rounds.

Thank you to additional event sponsors Crossroads Bank, Troxel Farm Equipment, Grow Wabash County, and Wabash Plain Dealer. We hope to see you soon.

First Friday in Wabash is led by volunteers Jennifer Long-Dillon, Christy Reynolds, Tenille Zartman, Maria Marshall, Karen Eilts-Walter, Paula Lhamon, Maria Smyth, Kimberly Lundmark, and Tyler Karst.

For more information regarding the 2018 First Friday Calendar of special events or to find out how you can become involved, please visit our website, www.wabashmarketplace.org, or contact Tyler Karst at 260-563-0975.
